

jour fixe

Fiona Connor, Closed Down Clubs, glass postcard edition, 2018, Photo: Olivia Barrett

UPCOMING LECTURE

FIONA CONNOR

27th May 2020, 8pm CEST,

<https://global.gotomeeting.com/join/353536173>

FIONA CONNOR (born in New Zealand) is an artist based in Los Angeles. Vital, recurring concerns in her practice include the social and psychological life of the object, the politics of camouflage and mimesis, and the ethics and aesthetics of the built environment. She has made solo exhibitions at Secession, Vienna; SculptureCenter, New York; MAK Center for Art and Architecture, Los Angeles; Govett-Brewster Art Gallery, New Plymouth; Monash University Museum of Art, Melbourne; Hammer Museum, Los Angeles among others. She has been involved with various artist-run spaces, including the Laurel Doody Library Supply, a distribution project that places small run publications in libraries located in the United States, Australasia, and Europe. Connor received an MFA from the California Institute of the Arts and a Conjoint BA/BFA from the University of Auckland.

Lecture will be held in English.