

UNIVERSIDADE DE SÃO PAULO

International Exchange 2016-2017

Last update July/2016

Last update July/2016
Universidade de São Paulo
Visiting address	USP International Office
	Av. Prof. Lucio Martins Rodrigues, s/n - Cidade Universitária
	São Paulo/SP – Brazil
Websites	University website: http://www.usp.br/
	International website: http://www.usp.br/internationaloffice/en/
Contact	Rogério Nóbrega
	Phone: +55 11 3091-2309
	mobility.area4@usp.br
Location	USP has 8 campuses spread throughout the state of São Paulo:
	São Paulo Campus, subdivided into 4 different locations:
	1. São Paulo Cidade Universitária Armando de Salles Oliveira (see location);
	2. São Paulo USP Leste (see location);
	3. São Paulo Faculdade de Direito - Largo de São Francisco (see location);
	4. São Paulo Quadrilátero da Saúde (see location);
	Bauru (see location);
	Lorena (see location);
	Piracicaba (see location);
	Pirassununga (see location);
	Ribeirão Preto (see location);
	São Carlos (see location).
Faculties, Schools	48 teaching and research units (see the full list)
and Institutes
Mailing address	USP International Office
	Universidade de São Paulo - USP
	Fone +55 11 3091-2309
	Av. Prof. Lucio Martins Rodrigues, s/n - Cidade Universitária
	São Paulo/SP - Brazil
	CEP: 05508-020
Registration Gu
Academic	1 st Semester: from February to June (holidays in July)
Calendar	2 nd Semester: from August to December (holidays in January)
	The full academic calendars are available at 2016 or 2017.
	Nota bene: some Schools follow a different calendar, so please refer to their International Office website for more information.
Nomination &	1st Semester (from February to June): Please nominate your students until
Application	October 5 th (students should submit their applications until October 15 th);
Deadlines	2 nd Semester (from August to December): Please nominate your students until
Ameliantian	May 5 th (students should submit their applications until May 15 th);
Application	Undergraduate studies
Procedures	1 - The student needs to be officially nominated via the Online Nomination/
	Application Platform Mundus. No hard copies are needed!
	2 - The student receives an automatic link referring him/her to upload the following documents (no hard copies are requested):
	following documents (no hard copies are requested):
	Recommendation letter from a professor; Learning Agreement (signed and stamped by the International Office of the Learning Agreement (signed and stamped by the International Office of the home university):
	home university); • Official Transcript of Records along with its simple translation into Portuguese.
	Official Transcript of Records along with its simple translation into Portuguese (signed and stamped by the home university):
	(signed and stamped by the home university);
	Copy of the valid passport page that contains the personal data;

UNIVERSIDADE DE SÃO PAULO

International Exchange 2016-2017

	A photo in ".jpg" format (50Kb Size).
	See also our website for further information on how to apply.
	Postgraduate studies
	Applications for courses at the postgraduate level (Mestrado and Doutorado) should be sent by email. Please ask us which documents will be necessary;
Courses offered	Students may choose subjects from different courses offered at different Schools. Click here to browse the online course catalogue.
Special	• The School of Engineering (Escola Politécnica) requires exchange students requirements	to enrol in a number subjects that correspond to at least 12 credits.
	• The Ribeirão Preto School of Economics, Administration, and Accounting (Faculdade de Economia e Administração de Ribeirão Preto - FEARP) requires applicants to enrol in a number of subjects that correspond to at least 16 credits.
Credit System	Exchange students are recommended to enroll in subjects that correspond to at least 12 credits (see Special requirements below for specific Schools).
	1 'In class' Credit = 15 hours
	1 'Workload' Credit = 30 hours
Grading System	Grades may range from zero to ten, and these numbers may be rounded to the nearest tenth. In order to pass a course, the student must fulfill two conditions:
	minimum score of 5,0 (five) and minimum attendance of 70%.
Course restrictions	• Exchange students in the area of Human Health are not allowed by law to undertake practical classes and internships. They may follow those disciplines as guest auditors, if suitable.
	The School of Architecture and Urbanism (Faculdade de Arquitetura e Urbanismo – FAU) and the School of Economics, Business and Accountancy (Faculdade de Economia, Administração e Contabilidade – FEA) receive each semester a large number of applications and have limited capacity to admit exchange students. Please refer to their Local International Offices before nominating students / applying. We highly recommend that students intending to apply for such schools consider the possibility of alternatively Languaga	applying for other schools as well. Good command of Portuguese (at least intermediate level, since most classes Language	are taught only in Portuguese). No certificate of language proficiency is required.
requirements
Acceptance letter	It usually takes from 30 to 45 days after the deadline for applications.
Transcripts	An official transcript will be sent to the Home University's International Office
01	after completion of the studies once the grades are released.
Short and Summer	USP offers short courses (refresher, diffusion, specialization, professionalizing,
Couses	extension, etc) either free of charge or at reduced fees.
Student Service	s, Support and Campus Life
Language course	The exchange student can attend (during the semester, not before) an intensive Portuguese course offered by the Language Learning Center (Centro de Línguas da FFLCH) at the São Paulo Campus only – Cidade Universitária. For further information, please visit http://clinguas.fflch.usp.br/ or send an e-mail to portcl@usp.br. For opportunities available on other campuses, please refer to D	our Local International Offices.
Restaurants	All campuses have their own restaurants that serve breakfast, lunch and dinner
Modical facilities	at affordable prices.
Medical facilities	USP owns two large hospitals and has partnerships with the Clinical Hospital of São Paulo and of Ribeirão Preto. Exchange students can have access to them
Sports and	in case of emergency. Sports and recreational facilities are present on all the campuses. Some centers oporto anu	oporto and recreational raciilles are present on all the campuses. Some centers

UNIVERSIDADE DE SÃO PAULO

International Exchange 2016-2017

run specific programs for several sports such as societ, passetical, voileyed and are available to foreign students. In addition to museums, USP also has several cultural centers and groups providing students with a rich diversity of options for leisure and culture. Student's Union For information regarding the student's union, please refer to the website of the student's associations . USP irrends is a program created by International Office of USP in order to the student's associations . USP irrends is a program created by International Office of USP in order to guidelite the contact between international Students and the academic community. The USP ifrend (a regular student at USP who signs up for the program) is responsible for the process. Accommodation Accommodation There are no accommodation options for exchange students within the campuses. The search for accommodation must be carried out by the students themselves according to their economic conditions and interests. USP strongly recommends that students take part in the USP ifriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices . Disability Support Disability Support Disability Support Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tou	0.14
field and are available to foreign students. In addition to museums, USP also has several cultural centers and groups providing students with a rich diversity of options for leisure and culture. For information regarding the student's union, please refer to the website of the student's associations. International Buddy Programme LUSP iFriends is a program created by International Office of USP in order to contact between international students and the academic community. The USP iFriend (a regular student at USP who signs up for the program) is responsible for the process. Accommodation Accommodation There are no accommodation options for exchange students within the campuses. The search for accommodation must be carried out by the students themselves according to their economic conditions and interests. USP strongly recommends that students take part in the USP iFriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the local international Offices. Disability Support Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for more register to appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visa! Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Orientation dates Orientation dates Orientation dates For further	Cultural facilities	run specific programs for several sports such as soccer, basketball, volleyball
In addition to museums, USP also has several cultural centers and groups providing students with a rich diversity of options for leisure and culture. Student's Union International Buddy Programme Buddy Programme Buddy Programme Accommodation Buddy Program is responsible for the process. There are no accommodation options for exchange students within the campuses. The search for accommodation must be carried out by the students themselves according to their economic conditions and interests. USP strongly recommends that students take part in the USP IFriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Disability Support Disability Support Disability Support Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to ernoll students with a tourist visa! Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates and the summary and provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international Student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different circled to the Local Internat		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
Providing students with a rich diversity of options for leisure and culture.		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
For information regarding the student's union, please refer to the website of the student's associations.
International Buddy Programme Buddy Budd	Student's Union
USP_IFriends is a program created by International Office of USP in order to facilitate the contact between international students and the academic community. The USP iFriend (a regular student at USP who signs up for the program) is responsible for the process. Accommodation	Otadent 3 Onion
Buddy Programme facilitate the contact between international students and the academic community. The USP iFriend (a regular student at USP who signs up for the process.)	International community. The USP iFriend (a regular student at USP who signs up for the program) is responsible for the process. Accommodation There are no accommodation options for exchange students within the campuses. The search for accommodation must be carried out by the students themselves according to their economic conditions and interests. USP strongly recommends that students take part in the USP iFriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to erroll students with a tourist visal Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Orientation dates Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information applice office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry -
Accommodation There are no accommodation options for exchange students within the campuses. The search for accommodation must be carried out by the students themselves according to their economic conditions and interests. USP strongly recommends that students take part in the USP iFriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Disability Support Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visal Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Orientation dates Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with opies of their health in	Buddy Programme
Tree are no accommodation options for exchange students within the campuses. The search for accommodation must be carried out by the students themselves according to their economic conditions and interests. USP strongly recommends that students take part in the USP iFriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visa! USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. For further information, please check the student quide. After Arrival Registering with the Local International Offices. For further information at the local Internationa		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , campuses. The search for accommodation must be carried out by the students themselves according to their economic conditions and interests. USP strongly recommends that students take part in the USP iFriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visal Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police office within the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact	Accommodation themselves according to their economic conditions and interests. USP strongly recommends that students take part in the USP IFriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Disability Support Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visal USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide For further information, please check the student guide. After Arrival Registering with the police of the host School/Faculty. Immediately upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional experience of	/ toodiminodation recommends that students take part in the USP iFriends program in order to get more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visa! Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Office of the host School/Faculty. Immediately upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their he more information about accommodation. Applicants may opt to take part in the buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Disability Support Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visa! Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide For further information, please check the student guide. After Arrival Registering with visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local Internati		• buddy program when filling out the online application form. For further information regarding alternative housing options outside the campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visal Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and c campuses, please contact the Local International Offices. Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visa! USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses An International Student and Researcher's Guide is availa		buddy program when filling out the online application form.
Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information
Please inform us about students' disabilities as early as possible. This information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the programme "USP Legal", we support students with special needs, including adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services. Pre-arrival Information
Pre-arrival Information Visa Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visa! Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and	Disability Support
Pre-arrival Information Visa Information Visa Information If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visa! Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and		information will not be used to assess their application at all. Through the
Pre-arrival Information
If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visal. Tuition fees		adapted transportation services. Here is a full list of all the available services.
them to request the appropriate Student Visa (VITEM IV) at the Brazilian diplomatic representation in their home country. The university is not allowed to enroll students with a tourist visa! USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide For further information, please check the student quide. After Arrival Registering with the police 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Pre-arrival Infor	mation
Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide For further information, please check the student quide. After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Visa Information	If accepted, the student will receive an Acceptance Letter, which is necessary for Tuition fees USP is a public state institution that receives exchange students at no cost, except for a few short summer and extension courses. Insurance The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide For further information, please check the student guide. After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and
Tuition fees
Enrollment except for a few short summer and extension courses.
The international student must provide a health insurance paper (mandatory). During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Tuition fees	•
During his/her stay in Brazil, the international student will have access to the Brazilian Public Health System only in emergency cases. Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.
Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Insurance
Orientation dates Upon acceptance, the student will receive further information about orientation dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide For further information, please check the student guide. After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.
dates. Please notice that different faculties/schools may have different orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide After Arrival Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Orientation dates orientation dates as well as enrollment deadlines. Specific inquiries should be directed to the Local International Offices. Student Guide For further information, please check the student guide. After Arrival Registering with the police Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Orientation dates	1
Student Guide For further information, please check the student guide.		,
Student Guide For further information, please check the student guide.		•
Registering with the police Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Student Guide Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information the police 30 days upon arrival and apply for a National Foreigner Registry - Registro Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.		Visitors will be required to register with the Brazilian Federal Police office within Nacional de Estrangeiros (RNE). For further information, please contact the Local Office of the host School/Faculty. Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.
Enrollment Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	the police Immediately upon arrival, the student should provide the Local International Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information Office with copies of their health insurance paper and visa so as to confirm their attendance in person and collect their personal University Card. Costs and Additional Information • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Enrollment	·
Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.
Costs and Additional Information Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.
Living Expenses • There are free transportation options within each campus (information available in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Costs and Additional Information in Portuguese) • It is possible to compare prices of basic living expenses in a variety of cities. Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download.	Living Expenses	• There are free transportation options within each campus (information available
Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download .
Student and An International Student and Researcher's Guide is available for download .
researcher's guide For further information the student may contact the Local International Offices.	Student and
	researcher's guide	For further information the student may contact the Local International Offices.	