Alia Farid is concerned with colonial histories, cultural rituals, as well as the social aspects of architecture. Through a practice that mainly combines film and sculpture, Alia Farid's work makes visible narratives that are often deliberately concealed.

Alia Farid (b.1985) lives and works in Kuwait and Puerto Rico. She has had recent solo exhibitions at Kunsthalle Basel, Basel (2022); Kunstinstituut Melly, Rotterdam (2022); and Portikus, Frankfurt (2019). Recent group shows include participation in the Whitney Biennial (2022), Lahore Biennale (2020), Yokohama Triennale (2020), Gwangju Biennale (2019).
